ISLAM

Here is information about Islam, especially its political component that most in the U.S. ignore.

Suggest printing off "Statistical Islam" PDFs to have as reference for other videos in the Political Islam section.

If you're not into history, you might want to start with 2nd video in list (note it's similar to the "Rational Study..." video).

Happy viewing/reading. Let me know what you think.

[Including some additional information videos such as from Dr. Ravi Zacharias, William J. Federer, and a few others to provide a broader perspective on subject.]

Why Aren't All Muslims Jihadists? – Dr. Bill Warner

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lf5gXh7uVlo>

Simple answer: Muslims are not all supposed to be violent Jihadists with a sword (nor all the time), according to the Quran.

Note: There are 4 forms of Jihad ("struggle"): of the Sword, of the Mouth, of the Pen and of Money.

Types of Jihad can include: Religious dialog, writing letters to the editor, proselytizing, etc.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cKJVHb\_sw\_M

This is a great introductory survey of Islam

(incl. comparisons of experiences of Mohammad and Joseph Smith; the trinity vs oneness, unity in diversity, caution about prejudging individual Muslim openness to Gospel, power of Christ's love/grace, etc.)

A Muslim Student Challenges Ravi Zacharias:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bl9ds3W7HQ0>

Question: full law is only present (detailed) in Jewish religion and more so in Islamic religion...so, how can Christianity be considered adequate.

Answer: Jesus never came to destroy law; but he stood in stark contrast to the "Judaizers" and Islam -- he transcended the written law (set on a higher plain). [examples are given]

Also, discusses question regarding the multitude of denominations in Christianity as opposed to Islam.

How do you know that Christianity is the one true worldview?:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nWY-6xBA0Pk>

Question: "If all religions claim they are the truth, then how can Christianity make the claim that they are the one true world view?"

note: there are 4 questions (i.e., origin, meaning, morality and destiny) that must be answered with coherence and correspondence (to truth) side note: religions can be broadly categorized as: only universe exists (atheists, etc.) or only god exists or somewhere in between (e.g., Jewish, Christian, Islamic, etc.).

Neither is Allah a Hebrew or Greek word for God as found in the Bible. Allah is a purely Arabic term used in reference to an Arabian deity. In Arabia, the sun god was viewed as a female goddess and the moon as the male god.

The word "Allah" comes from the compound Arabic word, al-ilah. Al is the definite article "the" and ilah is an Arabic word for "god", i.e. the god. We see immediately that (a) this is not a proper name but a generic name rather like the Hebrew El (which as we have seen was used of any deity; and (b) that Allah is not a foreign word (as it would have been if it had been borrowed from the Hebrew Bible) but a purely Arabic one.

It would also be wrong to compare "Allah" with the Hebrew or Greek for God (El and Theos, respectively), because "Allah" is purely an Arabic term used exclusively in reference to an Arabic deity.

God in Arabic is Elah. Allah means Curse in Hebrew.

ALLAH the Moon-god

As has been pointed out by many scholars such as Alfred Guillaume: ALLAH – the Moon God - <https://www.biblebelievers.org.au/moongod.htm>

The literal Arabic name of Muhammad's father was Abd-Allah. His uncle's name was Obied-Allah. These names reveal the personal devotion that Muhammad's pagan family had to the worship of Allah, the Moon god.

History proves conclusively that before Islam came into existence, the Sabbeans in Arabia worshipped the moon-god Allah who was married to the sun-goddess. We have also seen that it was a matter of common practice to use the name of the moon-god in personal names in Muhammad's tribe. That Allah was a pagan deity in pre-Islamic times is incontestable. And so we must ask ourselves the question: why was Muhammad's God named after a pagan deity in his own tribe?

The daughters of Allah, along with Allah and the sun goddess were viewed as "high" gods. That is, they were viewed as being at the top of the pantheon of Arabian deities.

"Along with Allah, however, they worshipped a host of lesser gods and "daughters of Al-lah"

The pagan Arabs worshipped the Moon-god Allah by praying toward Mecca several times a day; making a pilgrimage to Mecca; running around the temple of the Moon-god called the Kabah; kissing the black stone; killing an animal in sacrifice to the Moon-god; throwing stones at the devil; fasting for the month which begins and ends with the crescent moon; giving alms to the poor, etc.

The Muslim's claim that Allah is the God of the Bible and that Islam arose from the religion of the prophets and apostles is refuted by solid, overwhelming archeological evidence.

Islam is nothing more than a revival of the ancient Moon-god cult. It has taken the symbols, the rites, the ceremonies, and even the name of its god from the ancient pagan religion of the Moon-god. As such, it is sheer idolatry and must be rejected by all those who follow the Torah and Gospel.

Jesus is far more than God's mere messenger. Jesus Christ is God's one and only Son (John 3:16-18). Further, He is the Second Person of the Trinity, God incarnate—God Himself (John 1:1,14; 5:18). Jesus claimed to be both "the Lord" and "God"

Jesus said, I am the resurrection and the life—"The whole power to restore, impart, and maintain life, resides in Me." (John 1:4; John 5:21).
No higher claim to supreme divinity than this grand saying can be conceived.

The Quran says all Muslims shall definitely enter hell with no guarantee of coming out.

The Bible is not a self referencing book unlike the Quran. The Bible is a book about history, geography and events that can be tested from outside the Bible unlike the Quran, which is a self referencing book, what does that mean? How can you know the Quran is the word of God? Muhammad says so, how do you know that Muhammad is right? because the Quran says so, that's what you call by a self referencing authority - Dr. Ravi Zacharias.

Our Jesus Christ is their antichrist, our antichrist is their redeemer.
It is a satanic counterfeit that is in complete reverse.

God in Arabic is Elah. Allah means Curse in Hebrew.

Even in light of our wretched sinful nature, God still loved us so much that He gave us a Redeemer - His Only Perfect Son - Jesus Christ.

Abraham's spiritual seed are all those, Jew or Gentile, who place their trust in Jesus Christ as the promised Messiah, as God's only way of salvation.

Q: Jews, Christians and Muslims have the same genealogy going back to Abraham, Noah and Adam.

1. True
2. False

The tree diverges at Hagar (slave to Abraham) who gave birth to Ishmael – God said that the decedents of Ishmael would be a great multitude.

•Genesis 16:1-16.

[10] Then the Angel of the LORD said to her, "I will multiply your descendants exceedingly, so that they shall not be counted for multitude." [11] And the Angel of the LORD said to her: "Behold, you are with child, And you shall bear a son. You shall call his name Ishmael, Because the LORD has heard your affliction. [12] He shall be a wild man; His hand shall be against every man, And every man's hand against him. And he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren."

Genealogies

•Genesis 21:9-21.

Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. And she went and filled the skin with water, and gave the lad a drink. [20] So God was with the lad; and he grew and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer. [21] He dwelt in the Wilderness of Paran; and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

In Islam, Hagar's story is alluded to in the Qur'an, but her name is not mentioned. Her role is elaborated in Hadith. She was the mother of Abraham's son, Ishmael, who is regarded as the patriarch of the Ishmaelite's i.e. the Arabs.

Salasilah Nabi/Rasul

From the Christian Think Tank:

I got this question:

Hi, so glad you're out there. I was wondering if perhaps you could answer this question regarding Ishmael, Abraham's other son. In Genesis 16:12 the angel of the Lord said to Hagar when she was running away from her mistress Sarai, that "this son of yours will be a wild man, as untamed as a wild donkey! He will raise his fist against everyone, and everyone will be against him. Yes, he will live in open hostility against all his relatives." Later, after Hagar and Ishmael are sent away because Sarah does not want Ishmael to share in the inheritance of Isaac, the angel of the Lord again comes to Hagar and tells her "Hagar what's wrong? Do not be afraid! God has heard the boy crying as he lies there. Go to him and comfort him, for I will make a great nation from his descendants." So....are the Muslims the descendants of Ishmael? As the Christians are descendants of Isaac. Thank you so much, in advance for your thoughts on this. In the present time with things happening as they are in the world, I'm sure you can see the reason I am wondering.....

I replied: I will put this in queue, but let me make a couple of quick comments to help you 'start safe' in this thing, friend:

1. Ishmael is the progenitor of many Arabs, INCLUDING ARAB Christians.
2. Isaac is the progenitor of all Jews, INCLUDING Jewish atheists and Jewish Christians.
3. Most Christians (non-Jewish, non-Arabian, plus a few other groups--e.g. Esau) are NOT physical descendants of Abraham at all (only descendants by faith, as are Arab Christians and Chinese Christians and African Christians).
4. Not all Muslims are Arabs (obviously--since there are Jewish Muslims, English Muslims and TONS of African and Malaysian Muslims).
5. Some Muslims are descendants of Isaac (e.g. Edom/Esau is in the ancestry of Jordan).
6. The "his hands will be against this brothers" was a prophecy just about Ismael (and presumably his household, as with most such statements), with no mention of his remote descendants in the text. Genesis leaves him (with no further mention) dwelling in the Arabian peninsula in 'independence' (not 'military defiance', btw). Unlike Esau, Ishmael is never made into the 'figurehead of opposition'. Modern antagonism on the part of a small subset of today's Muslims would be difficult to trace back to this prophecy (e.g., if it WERE a prophecy of all of Ishmael's descendants, then ALL/MOST them--Muslim or not-- would be 'at hostility' with all OTHER Arabs--"their brothers", see?).
7. God never stated anything negative about Ismael's remote 'descendants'--only that He would BLESS Ishmael (not curse him!!!) and make him a 'great nation'-- as an answered prayer to Abraham (who loved Ishmael). They (as inhabitants of Sheba/Seba), will honor the Millennial king with gold--Psalm 72.10,15. [This is important: God BLESSED Ishmael; He never BLESSED Esau. Blessing is special.]
8. Strictly speaking, MOST of the original Arabs (from the Arabian peninsula) were NOT descendants of Israel:

"In the Table of Nations (Gen. 10) a number of Arabian tribes are mentioned: among the descendants of Joktan (of the line of Shem), Hazermaveth, Sheba, Havilah, and others (10:26–29); and among the descendants of Cush (of the line of Ham), Seba, Havilah, and others (10:7). If Cush is to be taken to mean Ethiopia, then the relationship of the south Arabian peoples and the Ethiopic peoples (or some of them), which is clearly indicated linguistically, may lie behind the dual reference in the Semite and Hamite genealogies. We also find northern Arabian tribes mentioned among the descendants of Abraham by Keturah (Gen. 25:1–4) and by Hagar (25:12–15), and among the descendants of Esau

(Gen. 36). At the time of Solomon, contacts with the Arabian Peninsula are indicated, both in the visit of the Queen of Sheba (1 K. 9:26ff, etc.) and in the tribute from the "kings of (the) Arab" (2 Ch. 9:14)." Bromiley, G. W. (1988; 2002). The International Standard Bible Encyclopedia, Revised (Vol. 1, Page 220). Wm. B. Eerdmans.

That being said, there is a huge religious contention between Judaism and Islam over the Abrahamic passage (e.g. which son was offered on the altar by Abraham), and over some of the 'shared' religious sites. But it doesn't have anything to do with today's contention--as far as I can tell. Most of the extremist Muslim-subset polemic against Israel (and allies) has to do with the 1967 war, apparently, although tensions have always run high since Israel was given back the Land after WW2.

But, in context, Christian-Muslim tensions were so much higher than Jewish-Muslim tensions for centuries and centuries longer.

The OT hostilities were mostly between Israel and Egypt (non-Ishmael), Israel and Moab/Ammon (descendants of Lot, Abraham's nephew), Israel and Canaan/Philistia (no relation to Abraham), Israel and Amalek (descendants of Esau), and Israel and Esau/Edom (descendant of Isaac). The major wars with Assyria and Babylon would have involved SOME Ishmaelites, but those nations were pre-Abrahamic in origin and of mixed nationalities by the time of the wars with Judah and Israel. Some of the Midianites are associated with Ishmaelites (as Bedouins) in the OT [they were descendants of Abraham by Keturah, so they would be 'brethren' of Ishmael also], so there is SOME hostility (e.g. the Midianites that Gideon fought were said to be Ishmaelites and Psalm 83 lists them as being in league with all the other enemies of Israel (long before there was Islam, obviously!)), but it is minute in comparison to other peoples...smile. The Midianites are not all bad, either, since Moses' father-in-law was one (also called a Kenite), and the Kenites are probably also Ishmael-related (as were the dutiful Rechabites). They gave gifts of gold and flocks to Solomon and Jehoshaphat (2 Chr 9.14; 17.11).

[Note Glenn: Muslims MIGHT affirm that they are 'descendants of Ishmael'--spiritual or otherwise--(just as they affirm that Abraham offered Ishmael instead of Isaac), but that doesn't mean (a) that it is true; (b) that it is relevant; or (c) that it has anything to do with God's prophecy in the bible! We might also note that Ishmael is used as an 'analogical type' for law-trusting Judaizers in Galatians 4!]

I hope this gets you starting in your thinking, friend--thanks for the question!

Glenn

The Heart of Islam

Excerpt:

With the prominence of Islam in the news you would think that everyone knows a lot about it (and especially all those reporters). In fact, if you followed many reports you'd be sure that all the Islamic extremists are just misguided zealots that don't know what the Koran (alt spelling Qur'an) really says. Islam is truly a peace loving, progressive, religion we're assured. Following September 11, many churches held 'information' sessions to show how much Christians have in common with Islam. Similar courses have and are being held in Bible schools and seminaries. The purpose of this article is not to provide detailed information on all aspects of Islam (something we may provide in the future), rather it's intended to highlight the one most important area where Islam differs with Christianity...

DEFENDING YOUR CHRISTIAN FAITH BEFORE MUSLIMS

I came across a video yesterday:

Why Muslim Dr. Nabeel Qureshi Converted to Christianity:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=H3IHueRXvh0>

The fact that I came across a video, in itself, is not of note in any way; but as I listened to it I was struck by the "apologetics" that was involved with him giving up Islam and accepting Christianity.

Let me ask you some questions...

How would you handle these questions/challenges regarding Christianity?

Suppose you ask a Muslim: "Do you know Jesus?"

Response: "Yes I do. The Quran tells me that Jesus was virgin born; he heals the lepers, deaf and blind; he can raise the dead; he is the Messiah. I also know that Jesus is not God."

You might say: "Of course he is God, that's the center of our faith, Jesus is Lord"

Response: "Okay, I'll grant you all four gospels. Show me where Jesus claims to be God."

You might then say: "Jesus says the Father and I are one. Is that not clear that he is claiming to be God?"

Response: "No it's not clear, because elsewhere in the same gospel of John, Jesus says he prays for the disciples to be one, just as he is one with the Father. So Jesus is praying for the disciples to be unified in spirit, just as he is unified in spirit with the Father... he's clarifying exactly how he is one with God, he's unified in spirit.

"In case that's not clear enough to you, don't forget that in John, Jesus says that the Father is greater than I."...If that is true, how can Jesus be God?

"What about in the gospel of Mark, where Jesus said he could do no miracles in Galilee because of their lack of faith...Are you telling me that God could not do miracles?

"What about Mark, Chapter 13, where Jesus says he does not know when the end of times is? ...Are you telling me that God does not know when the end of times is. This does not make any sense at all.

"If you want to know about real truth, let me share with you about Islam."

How would you respond?

Remember, this is happening during a conversation in real time.

Would you be like a deer caught in the headlights?

And how would you handle a Muslim coming up to you while you were reading the Bible and asking you: "Do you realize that the book you are reading is horribly corrupt? The book has gone through several translations, revisions, etc. from Hebrew, Aramaic, Greek -> Latin -> German -> English...

" There are a multitude of versions. How do you know what is right?

Bismillah = In the name of Allah

Here is the starting image of "In the Name of Allah" with two swords as it would appear on a banner.

Let's hang the banner from the ceiling. This changes the orientation of the banner. The top is now to the left:

I turned over the banner and actually hand traced the other side to make viewing easier. I didn't use a computer to flip the image. If someone was viewing the banner from the backside, then this is what they would really see. Below is the result which matches what John wrote down.

If you are going to promote one world under Islam, then surely you are going to make some banners promoting the idea. And banners are usually printed on one side. John was viewing things that he probably did not understand. It is not likely that he would know the correct orientation of the banners.

If you see an image for "In the Name of Allah" that is accompanied by two swords, then you will know that it is also a number. That number will be the Greek numbers for 666. Everybody else will scoff at you.

Could Islam really take over the world? This article will lead from the destruction of America to the rise of Islam – America in Bible Prophecy: Three Biblical Signs of Impending Doom on America. Or check out this article plus video series: Could Islam really take over the world?

The Number of the Beast – 666 – is described in the passage of Revelation 13:15–18 and the actual number is only mentioned once, in verse 18. There are several interpretations-translations for the meaning of the phrase "Here is Wisdom, Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast" where the peculiar Greek word "psefisato" is used. Possible translations include not only "to count", "to reckon" but also "to vote" or "to decide".

"Here is Wisdom, Let him that hath understanding 'decide' the number of the beast."

So the number of the beast is not obvious unless you do something.

Greek numbers for 666:

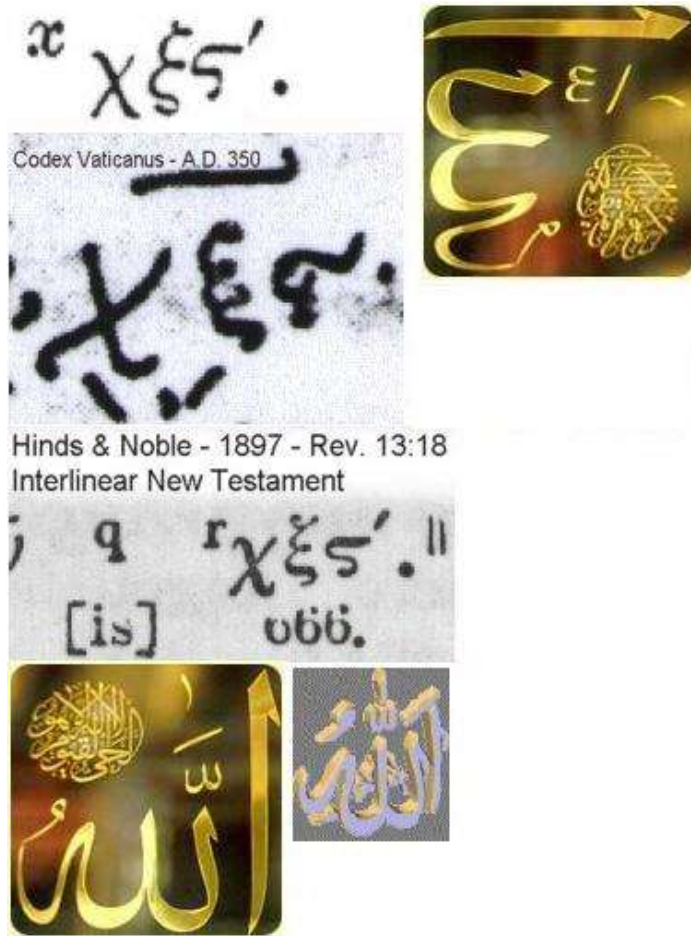

σπα' (200 + 40 + 1) A famous example is 666 (the number of the Beast), which is represented as χξς' (600 + 60 + 6) in medieval manuscripts of the Book of Revelation.

Letter	Value	Letter	Value	Letter	Value
α'	1	ι'	10	ρ'	100
β'	2	κ'	20	σ'	200
γ'	3	λ'	30	τ'	300
δ'	4	μ'	40	υ'	400
ε'	5	ν'	50	φ'	500
ϛ' or ζ' or στ'	6	ξ'	60	χ'	600
ζ'	7	ο'	70	ψ'	700
η'	8	π'	80	ω'	800
θ'	9	ς'	90	ϣ'	900

According to Walid, the X represents two swords.

The key to the next image is understanding that the middle symbol "60" must additionally include a bar above it. It is "Iw" rotated 90 degrees clockwise so that it looks like an E with a bar over it.

The image from Codex Vaticanus with an additional Islamic image (In the Name of Allah) that has been rotated:

The flag of the Islamic Courts Union:

We have already seen that the number of the Antichrist is 666 from Rev 13:18. Bible translators get this number from the Greek characters  $\chi\xi\varsigma$  (Chi Xi Stigma). The Greeks, like the Romans, did not have separate numeric characters like we do today. So they assigned numeric values to their characters and add them up. Here are some actual photos of the Greek letters on real scrolls:

$\chi\xi\varsigma$

$\chi = 600$
 $\xi = 60$
 $\varsigma = 6$

666

So the focus has always been on the numeric value of the characters. Interestingly,  $\chi$  is the first letter of Christ and  $\varsigma$  is the last, and  $\xi$  is known as "the serpent" because it resembles a snake. But a recent discovery may indicate that the Greek letters may actually be symbolic as well as associated with the number 666. The Arabic character for Allah is shown below at left. When mirrored and turned on its end, it looks remarkably like the Greek letter Xi, the middle character in the 666 of Revelation 13:18.

الله

Mirror Image of

Turned up on end

Now compare it with Xi

Allah transposed

... looks very much like the Greek letter Xi

This is quite amazing by itself but it doesn't end there. On the Zola Levitt program, Walid Shoebat, a former PLO terrorist now Christian evangelist (son of Hamas founder, who is an amazing story himself), said that when he saw the Greek symbols ξς (Xi and Stigma), he immediately read it as the Arabic characters for "Bismillah" (or Bismilla) which means "in the name of Allah" (keep in mind that Arabic is read from right to left).

 Here's a short video of Walid Shoebat explaining

Furthermore, the Greek letter Chi (χ) resembles the Crossed Swords of Islam, which is a very common symbol in the Muslim world. So what we have is "In the name of Allah - crossed swords". Here are a couple of examples.

In light of all of the aforementioned facts, I personally feel that God has given us some huge clues as to what religion the Antichrist will arise out of. It just seems too much of a coincidence that this character Xi would be so similar to the Allah character.

Those in Islam that believe in the number "666" and its purity say that Satan used Christians to pervert the Bible. They believe that the book of Revelation was inspired by Satan and that he used the number "666" as a bad number in order to prevent Christian people from accepting the Quran and the teachings of Mohammed because of fear. But someday all of the events foretold in the Bible will come true, eg. the reign of the Antichrist, requirement to worship him or his image, requirement to wear his Mark on the right hand or forehead to be able to buy and sell - and thus prove that it was inspired by ALMIGHTY GOD. And all those who worshipped the Beast (Antichrist) or wore his Mark will be eternally condemned to the Lake of Fire. This means everyone, Muslim and non-Muslim, who wears the Mark of the Beast.

Crucial Advice

Now to you Muslims reading this I give you a challenge from your own Koran. Does it not say,

You shall not accept any information,
Unless you verify it for yourself.
I have given you the hearing, the eyesight, and the brain,
And you are responsible for using them.

- Quran 17:36

You have been told by others around you that Christians and Jews have corrupted the original scriptures so they are no longer as they originally were - that Christians have deified Jesus and made up the stories about all of the miracles. But were you shown any evidence of this? Did you believe it just because someone told you it was so? Wouldn't the only acceptable evidence be to show the original scrolls the way they allegedly were before being corrupted? And of course the scrolls would have to be subjected to scholarly scrutiny to verify that they are indeed as old or older than the copies in dispute, right? What other evidence would possibly be acceptable? If you hold that the Jewish and Christian scriptures have been substantially corrupted from the original, where is the evidence? Surely your leaders can produce the original, uncorrupted scrolls which you can verify for yourself, just as the Koran requires you to do. Remember its says - "you shall not accept any information unless you verify it for yourself".

Strange Points

At times Shoebat gets absolutely weird. For example, he says that one day while he was examining the Codex Vaticanus Greek text of the Book of Revelation, he noticed "that the supposed Greek letters (Chi Xi Sigma) that are used to translate to the number 666 very much resemble the most common creed of Islam...written in Arabic."<sup>47</sup>

The lower case Greek letters for Chi Xi Sigma are as follows:

χ ξ σ

The condensed Islamic creed, shown to the right, literally means (reading right to left): "In the Name of Allah," followed by the symbol of crossed swords.

He then observes that the Greek text for 666 (shown to the right) looks like the Islamic creed except that the word, "Allah," is presented vertically, with the crossed swords to the left of it.

He then asks, "Is it possible that the Apostle John, while receiving his divine revelation, did not see Greek letters, but instead was supernaturally shown Arabic words and an Islamic symbol, which he then faithfully recorded?"<sup>48</sup>

WARNING:

..., beware of 'Lone Ranger' interpretations of prophecy that are not widely shared. God does not reveal the meaning of prophecy only to a person or two. 2 Peter 1:20 says, "no prophecy of Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation." Private and peculiar interpretations like the recent "Pre-Wrath Rapture," usually make a big initial splash and then fade quickly when submitted to critical review.

Note: actual Bible text: 2 Peter 1: ...[18] *And we heard this voice when it came from heaven while we were with Him on the holy mountain. [19] So we have the prophetic word strongly confirmed. You will do well to pay attention to it, as to a lamp shining in a dismal place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. [20] First of all, you should know this: No prophecy of Scripture comes from one's own interpretation. [21] because no prophecy ever came by the will of man; *instead, men spoke from God as they were moved by the Holy Spirit. [HCSB]*

Muslim Woman Gives Jesus One Week To Prove Himself Before Ending Her Life. Then This Happens!...

<https://hooktube.com/watch?v=TJUUh-Jeqfrg>

Neither is Allah a Hebrew or Greek word for God as found in the Bible. Allah is a purely Arabic term used in reference to an Arabian deity. In Arabia, the sun god was viewed as a female goddess and the moon as the male god.

The word "Allah" comes from the compound Arabic word, al-ilah. Al is the definite article "the" and ilah is an Arabic word for "god", i.e. the god. We see immediately that (a) this is not a proper name but a generic name rather like the Hebrew El (which as we have seen was used of any deity; and (b) that Allah is not a foreign word (as it would have been if it had been borrowed from the Hebrew Bible) but a purely Arabic one.

It would also be wrong to compare "Allah" with the Hebrew or Greek for God (El and Theos, respectively), because "Allah" is purely an Arabic term used exclusively in reference to an Arabic deity.

God in Arabic is Elah. Allah means Curse in Hebrew.

ALLAH the Moon-god

As has been pointed out by many scholars such as Alfred Guillaume: ALLAH – the Moon God - <https://www.biblebelievers.org.au/moongod.htm>

The literal Arabic name of Muhammad's father was Abd-Allah. His uncle's name was Obied-Allah. These names reveal the personal devotion that Muhammad's pagan family had to the worship of Allah, the Moon god.

History proves conclusively that before Islam came into existence, the Sabbeans in Arabia worshipped the moon-god Allah who was married to the sun-goddess. We have also seen that it was a matter of common practice to use the name of the moon-god in personal names in Muhammad's tribe. That Allah was a pagan deity in pre-Islamic times is incontestable. And so we must ask ourselves the question: why was Muhammad's God named after a pagan deity in his own tribe?

The daughters of Allah, along with Allah and the sun goddess were viewed as "high" gods. That is, they were viewed as being at the top of the pantheon of Arabian deities.

"Along with Allah, however, they worshipped a host of lesser gods and "daughters of Al-lah"

The pagan Arabs worshipped the Moon-god Allah by praying toward Mecca several times a day; making a pilgrimage to Mecca; running around the temple of the Moon-god called the Kabah; kissing the black stone; killing an animal in sacrifice to the Moon-god; throwing stones at the devil; fasting for the month which begins and ends with the crescent moon; giving alms to the poor, etc.

The Muslim's claim that Allah is the God of the Bible and that Islam arose from the religion of the prophets and apostles is refuted by solid, overwhelming archeological evidence.

Islam is nothing more than a revival of the ancient Moon-god cult. It has taken the symbols, the rites, the ceremonies, and even the name of its god from the ancient pagan religion of the Moon-god. As such, it is sheer idolatry and must be rejected by all those who follow the Torah and Gospel.

Jesus is far more than God's mere messenger. Jesus Christ is God's one and only Son (John 3:16-18). Further, He is the Second Person of the Trinity, God incarnate—God Himself (John 1:1,14; 5:18). Jesus claimed to be both "the Lord" and "God"

Jesus said, I am the resurrection and the life—"The whole power to restore, impart, and maintain life, resides in Me." (John 1:4; John 5:21).
No higher claim to supreme divinity than this grand saying can be conceived.

The Quran says all Muslims shall definitely enter hell with no guarantee of coming out.

The Bible is not a self referencing book unlike the Quran. The Bible is a book about history, geography and events that can be tested from outside the Bible unlike the Quran, which is a self referencing book, what does that mean? How can you know the Quran is the word of God? Muhammad says so, how do you know that Muhammad is right? because the Quran says so, that's what you call by a self referencing authority - Dr. Ravi Zacharias.

Our Jesus Christ is their antichrist, our antichrist is their redeemer.
It is a satanic counterfeit that is in complete reverse.

God in Arabic is Elah. Allah means Curse in Hebrew.

Even in light of our wretched sinful nature, God still loved us so much that He gave us a Redeemer - His Only Perfect Son - Jesus Christ.

Abraham's spiritual seed are all those, Jew or Gentile, who place their trust in Jesus Christ as the promised Messiah, as God's only way of salvation.

MAP OF ASSYRIAN CONQUESTS

Babylonian / Assyrian Empires

Assyrian -> Babylonian -> Persian Empires

Assyria was founded by colonists from Babylon and for many centuries was subject to, or in conflict with, Babylon. Assyria was a world empire from around 884 B.C. to the fall of Nineveh, its capital, in 612 B.C.

It was the Babylonian Empire that broke the power of Assyria, and, in its westward sweep, destroyed Judah and conquered Egypt. The Empire's capital was in Babylon and as a world power it lasted from 612 B.C. to 536 B.C. Cyrus, king of Persia, conquered Babylon in 539 B.C. The Persian Army took the Babylonian empire without a battle during the days of Babylon's King Nabonidas and his first son King Belshazar.

Mesopotamian Chronology

Middle East

802379 (R01077) 5-95

The Levant is a geographic and cultural term referring to the region of the "eastern Mediterranean littoral between Anatolia and Egypt". The Levant includes most of modern Lebanon, Syria, Jordan, Israel, the Palestinian territories, and sometimes parts of Cyprus, Turkey and Iraq, and corresponds roughly to the historic area of Greater Syria; precise definitions have varied. The Levant has been described as the "crossroads of western Asia, the eastern Mediterranean and northeast Africa".

In earlier periods, the Levant encompassed all the "Mediterranean lands east of Italy". The term Levant, which first appeared in English in 1497, originally meant the East in general. It is borrowed from the French levant 'rising', that is, the point where the sun rises. Similar etymologies are found in Ancient Greek Ἀνατολή (cf. Anatolia), Germanic Morgenland and in the Hungarian Kelet which literally means the place of rising. Most notably, "Orient" and its Latin source oriens meaning "east", is literally "rising", deriving from Latin orior "rise".

Today "Levant" is typically used by archaeologists and historians with reference to the prehistory and the ancient and medieval history of the region, as when discussing the Crusades. The term is also occasionally employed to refer to modern or contemporary events, peoples, states or parts of states in the same region, namely Cyprus, Iraq, Israel, the Palestinian territories, Jordan, Lebanon, and Syria (compare with Near East, Middle East, Eastern Mediterranean and Western Asia).

The largest religious and ethnic group in the Levant is Sunni Muslim Arabs, but there are also many other groups. Until the mid-20th century, there were Jews all across the Levant; now most are in Israel. There are many Christian Arabs, belonging to the Antiochian Orthodox \(Greek/Eastern Orthodox\), Maronite Catholic, belonging to the eastern Catholic, and Oriental Orthodox churches. There are Assyrians, belonging to the Assyrian Church of the East (autonomous) and the Chaldean Catholic Church (Catholic). There are largely Sunni Muslim Kurds. There are Shia Muslims (Alawite, Twelvers, and Ismailis) and Druze. There are Armenians, mostly belonging to the Armenian Apostolic Church. There are a few Arab and Armenian Protestant Christians. There are also Latin Catholics, called Levantines or Franco-Levantines.

The Crusades – Top 4 Myths Busted

THE CRUSADES | TOP 4 MYTHS ABOUT THE CRUSADES... BUSTED

MYTH #1 - CHRISTIANS STARTED IT ESTABLISHED BY THE ARABY HISTORIAN IBN AL-KALBI

- MAKING A LIST OF 100+ MUSLIM MURDERERS TO BE CRUCIFIED IN 1099.
- IN THE CRUSADES, MUSLIMS WERE THE FIRST TO ATTACK CHRISTIANS.
- FORBIDDEN BY THE PAPAL POPE, URBAN II, TO ATTACK MUSLIMS.
- BY 1099, THE CRUSADES WERE ALREADY IN FULL SWING.

MYTH #2 - CRUSADERS JUST WANTED TO GET RICH

IN FACT, THEY WENT PROUDLY INTO DEBT, BUT FOR CENTURIES THEY KEPT FIGHTING.

ARMIES OF KNIGHTS TOOK THE CRUISE, QUARTY BY QUARTY, IN THE NAME OF PEACE. TO PAY FOR NO WAR IN THE CRUSADES, THEY WENT INTO DEBT.

MYTH #3 - ONLY BAD CHRISTIANS DIDN'T REALLY BELIEVE THEIR OWN RELIGIOUS PROPAGANDA

NO? THEN WHY DID SO MANY VOLUNTEER WHEN:

- THERE WAS NO DRAFT
- CASUALTY PAYE IMPROVED THE FIRST CRUSADE.
- WARRIORS WERE REWARDED FOR KILLING THE KRAKES, AND THEY PAINTED A WAR PICTURE OF FORTRESS AND DEATH.

MYTH #4 - THE CRUSADES CAUSED VIOLENCE AND HATRED IN THE WEST

UNTO THIS DAY, MUSLIMS BELIEVE THAT THEY WERE BEATEN BY A PONY ROSTER OF CHRISTIAN ATTACK IN THE CRUSADES. AFTER A WHILE, A FRENCH LADY WAS TOLD A FRENCH HUSBAND, "THOUGH HE, WHICH OF US WON THE CRUSADES?"

THE AL-BULAN-TOO HUSBAND WENT THE OTHER WAY OF THE CRUSADES & RELIGIOUS WAR.

THE INTERNATIONAL STUDY GROUP ON CRUSADES IN EUROPEAN HISTORY (ICR) HAS BEEN SET UP TO PROMOTE THE STUDY OF THE CRUSADES AND PROMOTE THEM.

Evangelism to Muslims

<https://www.namb.net/apologetics-blog/evangelism-to-muslims>

When most of us think of Islam and Muslims, we think of extremists and terrorists. Our images are of women wearing burkas and men in head scarves. Instead, we should think of our Muslim neighbors down the street, worried about their kid's education, how things are going at work and about their marriages and in-laws. They're not so different from you and me. So how do you share your faith with a Muslim? When I think of sharing my faith with a Muslim, I like to think in terms of C. Peter Wagner's 3 P's in evangelism: presence, proclamation and persuasion. I like to add a fourth "P:" prayer, which is the foundation of all of our evangelism. Think of these four P's as building blocks forming a pyramid.

Evangelism to Muslims: A Bridge

<https://www.namb.net/apologetics-blog/evangelism-to-muslims-a-bridge>

Finally, let me give you an easy- to-remember bridge to use as you share the gospel with your Muslim friend. Whenever you meet Muslims, they'll say, "As- salam alaykum," meaning "peace be on you." Ask them about that peace, where it comes from, how it's attained, whether anyone can have it and why there is such a lack of peace on earth. Then, ask if you can tell them a story...

Evangelism to Muslims: Presence

<https://www.namb.net/apologetics-blog/evangelism-to-muslims-presence>

Presence, the second largest of our blocks, is about being with your Muslim friends. Muslims, and middle-easterners in general, are event-oriented people. It's not about "quality time" for them; it's about the quantity of time you spend with them. This is difficult for most of us to understand because we lead busy lives that leave little time for friendship. However, if you plan to share the gospel with your Muslim friends, you need to carve time out of your schedule to be with them. Invite them to go places with you, even if it seems mundane. Remember, it's about time, do not worry about what you are doing; just be with them.

As you spend time with your Muslim friends, it's important that you help them with the needs they have here in the U.S. When you go to their home, ask if you can help them with something. Maybe they need help with a letter they received from their school about their kids, but they do not understand what they are supposed to do. Perhaps they need help making a doctor's visit or going to the dentist...

Evangelism to Muslims: Proclamation

<https://www.namb.net/apologetics-blog/evangelism-to-muslims-proclamation>

Proclamation is sharing of the good news, and the pyramid cannot exist without it. Religious conversations are never difficult to get into with a Muslim, but they can be difficult to end without starting a debate. If you have practiced the first two "P's," you'll find that your friend will listen to you. But don't wait to start proclaiming the good news of Jesus. From the very beginning, establish the fact that you are a follower of Jesus, and that he makes a difference in your life. Talk to them about your prayer life and what God is doing in your life. One way to initiate a good conversation is to ask your friend if you can share your story with them about how God has changed your life, and then share your testimony with your friend. Remember, though, everyone has a story. You might find that your Muslim friend has a similar story to yours about how Islam has changed his life, so don't just stop with your story, but share a biblical story as well. When I share my testimony I also tell the story of Cornelius in Acts 10, emphasizing that Cornelius was a godly man by everyone's standards, but that was not enough. He still needed Jesus in his life, so God sent Peter to tell him the rest of the story. I then tell my friend that I am there to tell him the rest of the story...

Evangelism to Muslims: Persuasion

<https://www.namb.net/apologetics-blog/evangelism-to-muslims-persuasion>

The smallest of the "P's" is persuasion, which is also the point of the pyramid – or the tip of the spear, to use another metaphor. Once you've established a strong relationship with your friend, you can say what needs to be said. You must eventually share that Jesus is the only way to have peace with God. You must share that, without repentance, there is no forgiveness for sins. You must share that Jesus is God.

When your friend argues with you, don't back down. Respond with affection in your voice. If he offends you, you can articulate that, but continue to pursue him with love. And never, ever deny the truth of the gospel, no matter what the situation...

Evangelism to Muslims: Prayer

<https://www.namb.net/apologetics-blog/evangelism-to-muslims-prayer>

Prayer is the biggest block and the foundation for working with any people group. To neglect this block is to take away your foundation and ignore what God wants to do in the lives of the people with whom you work. Jesus says in Luke 10, "the harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."

Jesus reminds his hearers that there is a harvest. In the time I have worked with Muslims—more than 22 years—I have been reminded over and over again that the Lord is calling out his own from among the most forgotten people groups all over the world, including people from the hardest Islamic sects and restricted-access nations. It's noteworthy that Jesus does not ask us to pray for people in need of the gospel. Rather, he directs us to pray for more workers...
